In order to maximise their involvement in the Team TG community we like all students to be involved in a wider curricular club.

These span before school, during social times and after school. (Students just have to turn up! They will then be added to the register.)

We firmly feel that this involvement brings not only social and academic development but a great sense of belonging to Team TG. Crucial for the transition experience.

Would you like to join an after school club or need extra support with your studies?

English

Literature is where I go to explore the highest and lowest places in human society and in the human spirit, where I hope to find not absolute truth but the truth of the tale, of the imagination and of the heart.

Salman Rushdie

The English team at Tudor Grange Samworth Academy are dedicated to the study of great works of literature and the crafting of exceptional and original writing. We use our collective expertise and knowledge as a department to inspire and motivate our pupils to academic excellence. In English we expose our pupils to a wide range of quality authors, playwrights, poets and historical contexts from the medieval period to present day. We endeavour to give our pupils the opportunities to analyse, infer and critique in order to prepare them for a future in academia and a firm understanding of ways in which to engage with and interpret the world around them.

TUDOR HABITS AND VALUES

Cambridge

Durham

Oxford

Warwick

Our Academy ethos is underpinned by the Tudor Habits and Values. This year we have relaunched our Tudor Habits and Values to consider the key aspects of character we wish to foster within our school community.

These are broken down into our Character Habits, seen here in yellow, then the Learning Habits, seen here in green.

Staff actively promote their development in all aspects of Academy life, across tutor times, assemblies, subject curricular and our taught behaviour curriculum.
